RSA “ Prof. Gino Cucurachi ” – Services charter

The “ Prof. Gino Cucurachi” residential and nursing home is a municipal structure founded and managed by Athena S.r.l. since 2006. It operates in the field of social health services with the aim of always having an avanguardist approach to the reality of the public and private sector and also to offer innovative solutions in the field of the health care. The organizational system in place facilitates the relationship between guests and the employee using a modern structure model, which is regulated with care and efficiency according to high-quality standards.

The “Prof. Gino Cucurachi” nursing home, provides service to elderly people, over the age of 64, with severe psycho-physical deficits as well as people suffering from senile dementia, who do not require complex health services, but need a high level of assistance and also socio-rehabilitation support with high socio-health integration.

Our mission is to take care of those who took care of us.

Our main values are: to be focused on each individual, always considering the background and the life experience; the quality of life and the health protection; the social relevance of the elderly, even if institutionalized.

The facility is located in Calimera, in a central position, a few meters from Piazza del Sole and Chiesa di San Brizio. It is developed on three floors and it also have a garden.
